INDOOR CIRCUS TO GIVE BOOST

One of the attractive objectives of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce is the Boy Scout program, embracing Gettysburg and Adams county.

Dr. W. E. Tilberg, dean of Gettysburg college, and chairman of the Boy Scout committee, was elected to the executive committee of the York-Adams area, at a meeting held Wednesday evening.

On March 27, the York council will meet at a noon luncheon at the Lafayette club, in York, at which time the York council will be formally abandoned and dissolved and the new York-Adams council will be inaugurated. This new group will be representative of York and Adams counties and will comprise the chairmen of all the troops in these two counties.

Plan Several Troops
On April 14, the Adams county program of Boy Scouts will be set up and arrangements are in readiness for the immediate organization of a number of troops in Gettysburg and Adams county. The rural sections of the county are to be organized and it is the hope of the committee that every eligible boy in the entire county will eventually be enrolled in this program.

The committee proposes to have the various churches sponsor troops with their own scout masters and representatives.

The Boy Scout program, wherever established, has met with the warmest reception of the citizenry and the committee chairman said today that his group has received exceptional support at every turn.

The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Boy Scout program. The Gettysburg Rotary and Lions' clubs each contributed $250 to the fund required to establish and promote the Scout program here this year.

Benefit of Scouts
The indoor circus, to be held this evening in the Eddie Plank gymnasium, is for the benefit of the Boy Scouts. More than $250 is expected to be realized at tonight's circus and the Chamber of Commerce committee has plans in view to raise the balance of the $1,000 required.

Dean Tilberg said today that he felt certain the indoor circus would be well patronized and that the proceeds would meet the expectations of the committee.

Other objectives of the Chamber of Commerce this year include a Bookmobile, or traveling library; an Apple Blossom festival or pageant; observance of November 19 as the anniversary of Lincoln's address, observance of the anniversary of the three days' battle here, July 1 to 4; a courtesy campaign; elimination of the mosquito menace; a buy-at-home campaign and other projects.

The membership and finance committee will make a three-day drive for members and contributions next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and it is believed that the roster of the club will exceed the 200 mark and that the budget of $7,500 will be reached before the committees conclude their canvass of the community.

Davis Seeks Summer Home

Mrs. Davis Goes Through Gettysburg Thursday On Way To Inspect Forest Hills Estate Near Carlisle; Owner Father Of Local Resident.

Senator James J. Davis, Pennsylvania's junior representative in the upper house of congress, is seeking a summer home in the vicinity of Carlisle, it was revealed Thursday, when Mrs. Davis, wife of the senator, made a special trip to Carlisle to inspect "Forest Hills," the large estate of John Lindner, about three miles west of Carlisle, with a view to renting it for the coming summer months. J. A. Lindner, North Stratton street, Gettysburg, is a son of the owner.

Mrs. Davis, accompanied only by a chauffeur, motored to Carlisle from Washington through Gettysburg and after spending several hours inspecting the estate returned before noon. During her brief visit Mrs. Davis was entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. George M. Duffer, Carlisle, close family friends, who accompanied Mrs. Davis on her tour.

Estate Pleases Mrs. Davis
According to Doctor Duffer, Mrs. Davis was very much pleased with the estate and its surroundings. If Senator and Mrs. Davis decide to rent the place they will take possession about the middle of June and stay for the remainder of the month.

"If at the end of the summer they find 'Forest Hills' to their liking it is altogether likely that they will purchase the place for a permanent summer residence," Doctor Duffer, who was Davis' pastor during his ministry in Washington, stated.

"Forest Hills" is one of the largest and most beautiful estates in this section of the state. It includes a furnished twelve-room mansion with all conveniences, two hundred acres, including a nine-hole golf course and provides boating and swimming facilities.

It is located along the Conodoguinet creek and its high elevation provides an unsurpassed view of the mountains and the entire county. The estate lies in North Middleton township, Cumberland county, and is connected with the Newville highway by two miles of dirt road, at the present time out of repair. Although Mrs. Davis made no comment on the road, the hope was expressed that it will be improved if the senator elects to rent the estate.

Featuring the show were the colorful and realistic costumes portraying the life in Vienna around their fun making time of the year. Appropriate and elaborate scenery added much to the successful play of the comedy.

Miss Josephine Codori, in the role of gypsy girl and later the long lost daughter of an English widow, portrayed in a creditable manner the songs, dances and customs of gypsy life. Several solo numbers by Miss Codori were well received, especially (Continued on Second Page)

SMITH TWINS WILL BOX, WRESTLE AT INDOOR CIRCUS THIS EVENING

The Smith Twins will not only box at the second annual indoor circus in the Eddie Plank gymnasium tonight, for the benefit of the Boy Scout program of Gettysburg and Adams county, but will wrestle.

It all came about this way. Wednesday evening the twins were going through their customary daily training period. Herbert, or maybe it was Harvey, smashed Harvey, or Herbert, on the nose. The claret flowed freely. "Doctor" Romeo Capozzi was called to render first aid. Within a few moments the victim of the right punch had recovered and was on his way to the mat to resume his training.

When Herbert, or maybe it was Harvey, reached the mat, he discarded all his boxing instinct and resorted to rough-and-tumble tactics to avenge himself. There ensued some of the finest wrestling maneuvers seen on a Gettysburg mat. Captain McReynolds, the twins' instructor, decided that a wrestling bout would amuse the crowd expected at tonight's circus, and instructed the twins in various wrestling holds.

Tonight the twins will "do their stuff," first with the padded gloves and then their inimitable "catch-as-catch-can" wrestling bout. They appear on the program immediately after the grand procession which moves sharply at 8 o'clock.

M'SPARRAN IN PLEA FOR LAW OBSERVANCE

Cabinet Officer Is

MAKES ADDRESS AT LOCAL CHURCH

Sacredness of law lies at the foundation of the national life of America and when people refuse to recognize the sanctity of law the bulwarks upon which this nation was founded will crumble. John A. McSparran, Pennsylvania state secretary of agriculture, declared in an address at the Gettysburg Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday evening.

Mr. McSparran's subject was "The Privilege of Living in a Christian Nation." A fair-sized audience heard the secretary of agriculture. The Rev. Herbert P. Beam, pastor of the church, presided.

The speaker declared that people are too prone to accept the commonplace things of life as a matter of course and not as Christian blessings. "People often complain that their school taxes are too high, but they fail to consider the millions who are unable to read or write because they did not have the advantages enjoyed by Christian, civilized nation," he added.

Pleads for Sunday Laws
Mr. McSparran pleaded for Sunday observance, asserting that no nation that made a holiday of the Sabbath has ever succeeded. He pointed out that during the French revolution, Sunday, as a day of rest, was abolished, and in its stead every tenth day was designated as a day of rest. This change, he declared, was an "absolute failure" because the human body could not stand the wear and tear of ten days of work.

Speaking of prohibition and its subsequent evils, Mr. McSparran declared that when the eighteenth amendment was proclaimed, 300,000 bartenders, all of them "potential law-breakers" were thrown out of employment, and he placed much of the blame for failure of the prohibition law upon them. He said the bartenders broke the high license law during the days of the saloon by failing to obey the law in dispensing liquor to minors, inebriates and others.

He declared that the prohibition law should be enforced not so much to stop drunkenness, but to improve efficiency of the modern workman.

Mr. McSparran decried the fact that people refuse to take the rest they require for strong, healthy bodies. "As a result of the strenuous life we are leading, people take liquor, tobacco and coffee to bolster their flagging bodies, thereby cutting their span of life," he asserted.

"The world looks to America for bigger and better things, and we of today must be careful that the rock-bound institutions, our forefathers gave us may be preserved for our children."

An orchestra from St. Paul's Evangelical church, York, played a number of selections during the evening.

To the Editor of The Times:

Beverly Hills, Cal., March 20—Just before Mr. Hoover left for Porto Rico he had a long private conference with Senator Borah, and Borah told him to go ahead and enjoy himself.

You can't afford to be on the outs with Borah—that is if you want to get anything done in this country.

There is an awful lot of people that would like to see Bill Borah President, and I would too. Course, I don't believe he would take it, for he would have to make too great a personal sacrifice of prestige and authority. It would be sorter like Mussolini being only the king. Yours,

Will Rogers.

LONG COMPANY IS INSOLVENT

Hanover Concerns In Receiver's Hands After Creditors Meet.

The Long furniture company, of Hanover, has gone into receivership and H. O. Heckert, of York, has been appointed receiver for the company. He will continue to operate the plant.

The appointment of Mr. Heckert as receiver was made by Judge Albert W. Johnson, in federal court at Scranton, on petition of a creditor represented by Charles Reider, York attorney. The assets of the company, including the Hanover properties, are placed at $718,043.56. The liabilities are listed at $276,869.09. Former Judge McClean Stock, of York, has been retained as counsel for the receiver.

Founded 30 Years Ago

The business was founded by A. C. Long thirty years ago and enjoyed a successful experience in years past. It is stated that the firm has a number of orders on hand and is still receiving additional orders for its products. The plant employs about 140 men at this time, and when operating to capacity on a full time schedule has had 300 employees on its payroll. It is reported to be the second largest industry in Hanover.

The receivership is described by J. B. Weeks, president of the company as a "friendly" proceeding. It is not solely due to the general financial and business depression at this time, it being stated that the company secured a large contract for manufacturing radio cabinets for a concern making radio receiving sets, and that this concern has failed, leaving the company with a large number of radio cabinets on its hands.

Mr. Weeks' Statement

The receivership became operative Thursday. The president of the company, J. B. Weeks, issued the following statement:

"The appointment of a receiver has been compelled by the need for ready cash by the company.

"The company is perfectly solvent. Our financial statement now shows assets of $718,043.56, and the total liabilities amount to $276,869.09.

"We have joined in a creditors' bill in the district court of the United States for the purpose of the receivership. Creditors have been pressing us for immediate payment of certain bills, and it was to avoid their securing preferences by suits that this action was taken. It is our belief that creditors need not fear anything, and that after the present business depression brightens the receivership will be ended and the assets of the company returned to the stockholders."

the scene around the well in the gypsy camp.

High Pressure Salesman

Of course, any comedy would not be complete without a typical American taking a prominent part. This the presence of "J. Jennison Jones," played by Henry Spahr, a high pressure advertising expert, is explained. He was always a source of fun, while during his serious moments he was able to be of service to his friends in Vienna. He delighted in compromising situations and whenever he could used them for advertising ideas.

Kenneth Hull and Richard Everhart, the two faithful sleuths, with their partly pantomime roles, succeeded in winning the appreciation of the audience.

Other members of the cast were: Wilbur King, Kathalyn Toddes, Harold Case, Charles Rupp, Bentzel Weller, Miss Margaret Waters, Joseph Bowser, Miss Florence Musselman, Harold Raffensperger, John Slentz and Samuel Ziegler.

Persons in Chorus

The tourist chorus was composed of the Misses Virginia Mitchell, Dorothy Meyer, Mary Bell, Helen Mump, Marian Stoner and Mary Nau, Robert Pitzer, Earl Harbaugh, William Kadel, John Eicholtz, Donald Swope and William McIlhenny.

In the gypsy chorus were the Misses Mary Cook, Betty Swope, Mary Stock, Ruth Stouck, Eleanor Zinn and Kathryn Beiter, Harry Ridinger, Fred Baschoar, Harold Beattie, Murray Frazee, Mahlon Fisse and Charles Swisher.

The Misses Charlotte Waltemeyer, Kathryn Gitt and Maybelle Kadel were cast in the roles of the fairies.

Much credit for the performance is due Miss Julia Ann Poe, director, and her assistants, Miss Ruth Scott, Miss Elizabeth Evans and Leo Fitzpatrick.

Between the acts, the high school orchestra rendered several short numbers.

Lancaster Girl Parks Where Law Objects; Rides in Patrol

Philadelphia, March 20.—Totally oblivious of Philadelphia's stringent anti-parking laws, Miss Lillian May Rote, 25, member of a prominent Lancaster family, sat in her trim and expensive roadster Thursday afternoon at 16th and Chestnut streets.

A police towing crew, under Patrolman Fry, arrived and sought to impound her car. As a visitor to this city she had no intention of paying $6 for having her car taken to a garage, she said.

Patrolman Fry remained obdurate; Miss Rote likewise. A crowd gathered. She refused to get out of her car, and the verbal battle became even more intense.

While members of the towing crew began preparations for taking away the car, Fry telephoned the foot traffic station, at 15th and Vine streets and requested that a patrol wagon be sent.

With the arrival of the patrol, Miss Rote was taken from her car and placed in it. At the station house she was booked on the charge of breach of the peace.

Miss Rote asked that she be permitted to communicate with friends by telephone. For several minutes police were kept busy answering calls from the friends who characterized the girl's arrest as an outrage and demanded her immediate release.

An official of an automobile club to which Miss Rote belonged arrived with a copy of the charge signed by a magistrate. Forty minutes after her arrest Miss Rote was free.

She immediately went to a garage on Broad street, above Callowhill, paid $6, and drove on her way.

Thompson has been an active farmer for years and has been identified with organizations seeking agricultural legislation.

Heads Farm Bureau

At the time of his appointment he was serving his third two-year term as president of the American Farm Bureau federation.

For the last six years Thompson has been one of the most active proponents of national farm legislation. He supported the old McNary-Haugen equalization fee bill. In the 1928 campaign he urged the election of President Hoover.

Thompson was born in Adams county, Illinois, in 1863. There he first became identified with agriculture and engaged in live-stock raising and grain farming.

Hundreds Of Prospectors
Head For Hills And Rich Find.

San Ignacio, Mexico, March 20 (AP)—Gilberto Laveaga, graduate of Santa Clara University in California and once a Mexican senator, came out of the Sierras Thursday with a story of a gold rush which has sent 600 prospectors into the mountains after a veritable treasure of natural wealth.

A hundred miles northeast of Mazatlan in Sinaloa Province, he said, 1200 pounds of gold worth nearly $350,000 have been taken out of the earth and mountain rivers. Some times the prospectors get as much as five pounds a day and in some places they are taking gold out of the rocks with their hunting knives.

Laveaga, an engineer, has spent six months in the goldfields.

The River El Tambor, fifty to 100 feet deep, with alluvial deposits six feet deep, is rich in gold, he said, and the modern Forty-niners are searching for the mother lode which they believe is farther upstream than any claim now staked.

Call Leader, Then Turn Gun Loose On Chicago Sidewalk

Chicago, March 20 (AP)—Three shotgun shells removed another labor union leader Thursday—William J. (Wild Bill) Rooney, boss of the Sheet Metal Workers' union for sixteen years.

"Hi, Billy," some one called from an automobile parked in front of Rooney's home.

Rooney, pacing the sidewalk, turned and advanced. The muzzle of a gun was poked from a rear window. Rooney stopped and started to turn, but three bursts of fire came from the weapon. He fell, his chest torn by slugs.

The assailants drove away. Witnesses could not describe them.

Bitter strife for the domination of local unions, engendered by rivalry for the profits of alleged racketeering, has been punctuated by a number of assassinations over a period of years. The killing a month ago of Albert Courchene, agent for the Plumbers' union, was the latest of the series.

Former Millionaire Weds Wife Again Because Of Ruling

Los Angeles, March 20 (AP)—A superior court judge made a bona fide marriage Thursday out of the romance of Eugene V. Brewster, former millionaire publisher, and Corliss Modena Palmer, actress, who began life together five years ago with a fortune, now dwindled to a few thousands.

In sleepy Ensenada, old Mexico, some 200 miles down the coast, Brewster and Miss Palmer were married five years ago under Mexican laws. Recent court rulings, Harry Dessem about 8:30 o'clock drove into the driveway alongside the Armstrong home, when he discovered the kitchen in flames. He spread the alarm and soon a bucket brigade was formed.

CHALLENGE JURORS IN FREDERICK CASE

Frederick—Challenging of jurors was for the second day deterrent to prompt dispatch of cases in circuit court Wednesday morning, as the first schedule case was delayed for an hour by the summoning of talesmen from different parts of the city, where they were encountered by deputies.

Only five members of the jury were unchallenged by either the state or the defense in the trial of Leroy Welsh, which began Wednesday morning. Several talesmen completed the list. The trial of Albert Snyder, charged with false pretense and carrying concealed weapons, was again postponed, due to the absence of several state witnesses in Waynesboro.

According to the police, Schlegelmilch was operating his truck east on Market street. A car owned by Ralph Ruby, 57 West Princess street, was parked in front of 853 East Market street.

MAN HURT, WANDERS ABOUT AFTER CRASH

Hagerstown—Injured when the truck in which he and James T. Belcher were riding early Wednesday morning was struck by a B. and O. freight at Hancock, Theodore Rowan, local representative for the Anheuser-Busch company, returned to Hagerstown after a lengthy search had been made for him.

Belcher, whose home is in Philadelphia, returned to Hagerstown soon after the accident, but Rowan, dazed by the collision, wandered up the railroad tracks and became temporarily lost. Later he returned to Hancock, registered at a hotel and then returned here Wednesday afternoon. Outside of a cut on his head and minor bruises he appeared none the worse off.

An Evening Thought

It is astonishing how all of us are cumbered up with a thousand and one hindrances and duties which are not such, but which never the less weigh us about with their spider threads and fetter movements of our souls. It is the lack of order that makes us slaves. The confusion of today discounts the freedom of tomorrow.

Read The Bible With Us Daily

And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

And as he entered unto a certain village, there met him ten lepers that stood afar off.

And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the priests.

And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God.

And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

NERVOUS, NO SLEEP

Erie, Pa.—"I was a nervous wreck, due to neuritis. I couldn't sleep or do my work. My family doctor couldn't do anything for my case. Finally, my sister advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription again, as it had helped me before, so I did. In all, I used five bottles. My doctor was surprised at the great improvement in me and asked me what I had taken. I told him, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and he said, 'Good, keep right on taking it! It has done for you what I have failed to do.'—Mrs. L. L. Barber, 1820 Cascade St. Druggists, Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package.

New York, March 20—Thoughts

while strolling: Who remembers when walnuts were cracked on the bottom of flat irons? Osgood Perkins' name combines Mayfair with a touch of the backwoods. All mirror stocking stores with ravishingly beautiful sales girls. And that hilarious clown, Dr. Rockwell.

Thyra Samter Winslow, a Ft. Smith, Arkansas, girl, who made good in the city. Jack Benny, so nonchalant on the stage, looks shy off. The wealthy salesman of advertising blotters who has backed several shows. David Belasco's far away look. A window of frisky wire haired puppies.

Those chunky pugilists with smacked down noses, lumpy ears and thin front voices. And who sit in the front row at the Palace on Sunday nights. A musical comedy wants 30 adagio dancers. Rookie "dese, dem and doze" cops. The late Jimmy Hussey coined, "O. Nerts!"

Former "jungle buzzards" who now play the bread lines. And ex-magistrates who used to wear paper hats and pound clappers in the night clubs. German kitchens featuring apple strudel. Associated Writers, Inc. They will write anything, any time on any subject. Hoora!

The Santa Claus types who work in the doll mending shop on 6th avenue. Judith Anderson. Who remembers the old parlor game "Red Rover?" Grever Whalen without a gardenia. Just a few years ago Jimmy Durante was "Rag Time Jimmy" of the Coney beer halls. Isabelle Leighton.

Few artists paint the real American girl so well as McClelland Barclay. They will soon be hanging the screen kitchen doors out yonder. I'm still twittery over that story I heard last night. Three men of high standing in an English village saw a man in the road vanish in thin air.

Maybe they did it with mirrors. Marie Cahill as chipper as a flapper. Knobby dressers in all black. Helen Gould's home is the only brown stone front left on the avenue. Overheard: "She married but I'll catch her on the rebound." What became of rock candy on a string?

Paris ran a temperature this winter over a female impersonator at the Cirque Medrano. He was known as Barbetta and came from a whistle stop in Texas—of all places. His entrance was preceded by a band, and he appears in a costume composed of 50 pounds of ostrich plumes. He neither sings nor dances but merely glides gracefully and slowly down a long white carpeted stairway, a la Dolores.

It was interesting to catch a close up of an experiment in Broadway's delectable art—gold digging—at the theatre last night. They sat directly in front. He was a heavy lidded yogi of the flesh—bald, fat, phlegmatic. She was a cherry-lipped baby talker—the type who replies to every remark with a simper and a snuggle. In the play appeared a beautiful lady swathed in a gorgeous ermine. "Daddy," cooed the gold-digger, "babykins want pretty coat like booful lady." He pretended not to hear so she repeated. And all through the play she would entreat with such lisps as: "Does babykins get pretty coat?" "Will Daddums make babykins very happy?"—and so on ad nauseum. The happy ending was revealed out front after the play. Calling to a member of her glossily bright sisterhood from a limousine step she trilled: "I won't be able to see you tomorrow, Mildred, I'm looking at ermine coats." Babykins won. They usually do.

Action Without Harm Whenever Constipated

Here's a way to be rid of constipation and its ills—a way that works quickly, effectively, but gently.

A candy Cascaret at night—the next morning you're feeling fine. Breath is sweetened; tongue cleared; biliousness, headaches, dizziness, gas vanish. Repeat the treatment two or three nights to get the souring waste out of your system. See how appetite and energy return; how indigestion improves.

The action of Cascarets is sure, complete, helpful to everyone. They are made from cascara, which doctors agree actually strengthens bowel muscles. All drug stores have the 10c boxes.

Tired When SHE GOT UP

Strengthened by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Paul, Minn.—"I used to be as tired when I got up in the morning as when I went to bed. I had fainting spells and palpitation. Of course it was my age. I read a Lydia E. Pinkham booklet and started taking the Vegetable Compound three times a day. I am now a well woman. Three of my neighbors know what it did for me so they are taking it too. I will write to any woman if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help her as it did me. I feel like a young woman now and I thank you."—Mrs. H. C. HENRY, 286 Fuller Ave., St. Paul, Minnesota.

THE NEGLECTED DEBUTANTE

The society columns referred to her as "one of last season's buds." Other girls her age married and set up homes. While she was left to face the future alone. Yet if she had only known in time. . . .

Too often, really charming girls allow poisons of constipation to take the bloom from their cheeks, to bring the pimples and wrinkles that age complexions.

Constipation is so much more prevalent among women, so much more difficult for them. What a pity when prevention is so easy. Simply eat a delicious cereal.

Two tablespoonsful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, eaten daily, are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN sweeps the intestines clean of all poisonous wastes. How much better than taking habit-forming pills and drugs.

Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. Use for making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Look for the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

OPPORTUNITY WEEK

MARCH 23 to 28

COPPER CLAD
DEMONSTRATIONLined with PURE SHEET COPPER where other Ranges Rust Out.

All next week March 23 to 28 is OPPORTUNITY WEEK at our store. During the entire week, a specialist from the Copper-Clad factory will be with us to tell you all about the Copper-Clad Range. We invite you to come in and see a most interesting demonstration. The Copper-Clad specialist will show you how the pure sheet copper lining protects Copper-Clad Ranges from inside rust, and how the thermos construction of the bodies and flues of Copper-Clad Ranges conserves heat, saves fuel and insures better baking results. He will also tell you why the sparkling beauty of the smooth porcelain enamel will endure throughout the entire life-time of the range.

After you have had the Copper-Clad demonstrated to you, you will be surprised at its extremely low price—a price no higher than that asked for ordinary ranges.

YOUR CHOICE OF THESE VALUABLE GIFTS

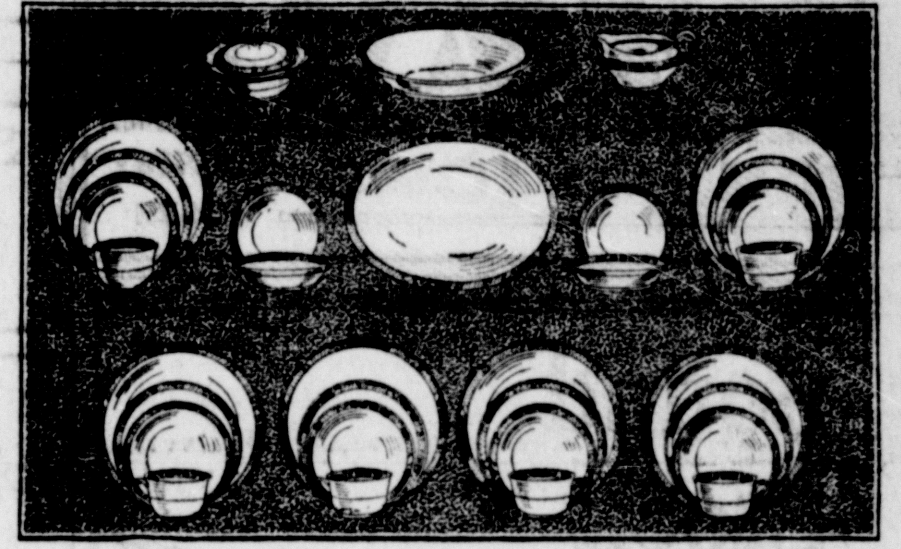

By special arrangement with the Manufacturers of Copper-Clad Ranges, we are able to offer a choice of the valuable gifts—illustrated below—to everyone purchasing a Copper-Clad Range during our Demonstration Week.

Even if no premium were offered, you would be getting a wonderful value in selecting the Copper-Clad Range for your home. But, in order to make this a real "OPPORTUNITY WEEK," the Manufacturers have authorized us to offer these beautiful gifts—absolutely free.
